

Alexander Egorov

CEO

Reksoft

Alexander Egorov was born 1969 in Leningrad, USSR and co-founded Reksoft (www.reksoft.com) in 1991 while studying in St.Petersburg State University of Aerospace Instrumentation. Alexander holds Master Degree in CAD/CAM from St-Petersburg University of Aerospace Instrumentation (1993) and MBA from the Stockholm School of Economics (2004).

Under Alexander's leadership Reksoft evolved from an IT start-up into one of the leading players on the Russian software engineering market, serving both international and domestic customers. Along with its core business as an IT solutions and services company, Reksoft has served as business incubator and venture launchpad for a number of high-tech companies with a current combined turnover of more than $500 mln. Among them are: largest Russian online retailer Ozon (www.ozon.ru), country's leading Internet payment gateway, Assist (www.assist.ru), telecom OSS/BSS product developer Barsum (www.barsum.ru), IT consulting companies Technoserv Consulting (www.tsconsulting.ru/en) and Edelink (www.edelink.ru).

As business angel Alexander also continues to support ventures in field of IT/Internet and sits on the board of directors of several international projects.